Elliot Rees in Year 1 was surprised in assembly this afternoon seeing his Christmas card design printed as a runner up in a national Christmas card competition run by Strutt and Parker estate agents. Elliot's design, as one of six runner ups, is printed on the reverse of Strutt and Parker's Christmas card this year. Elliot and the other runner ups received a £25 book token. The winning design, shown above on the right, is featured on the front of their cards and was designed by a child in Scotland.
